

Pleasures of Imaginative Flights

This volume is the collection of 22 research papers appeared in different journals over a period of over 5 years. They are based chiefly on literary studies in English vis-a-vis literary Darwinism. The research journals in which they have periodically appeared have duly been acknowledged. The chapters have been written lucidly, nonetheless, they require an advanced knowledge of the subject. Some interpretations of mine may appear unpalatable to the discreet readers, for which their indulgence is craved for.

 stencils or patterns are ever used. ½ Every birdhouse is treated with several coats of high quality exterior varnish for protection from the elements and to ensure colors will stay bright throughout the seasons. Birds love gourds for nesting and will often return to the same one year after year. ½ When nesting season ends, the gourd's usefulness doesn't end. ½ Birds will continue to use them as shelter from weather and for protection from predators.
