Written by two bankruptcy law experts, this product helps practitioners prepare their cases under the Bankruptcy Code as amended in 2005 by BAPCPA. It includes detailed analysis of the significant effects on business and consumer law resulting from the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 (most changes effective Oct. 17, 2005). It also contains useful checklists of new requirements for the debtor, the debtors attorney, trustees, creditors, and the U.S. trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The analysis features discussion of changes that apply to consumer and bankruptcy cases, exemptions, exclusions and asset protection, small business cases, health care cases, and cross-border cases.
