

Bobby Baker: Redeeming Features of Daily Life

Bobby Baker is one of most widely acclaimed and popular performance artists working today. Over the course of a thirty-five-year career she has toured the globe with her wildly stimulating explorations of Daily Life and has been extensively written about and studied. This fully-illustrated book brings together for the first time an account of Bakers career as an artist from her first sculptures at Central St Martins in the early 1970s to her most recent work, How to Live and Diary Drawings with critical commentary by reviewers and academic practitioners. It includes: Bobby Bakers own Chronicle of her work as artist and performer illuminating critical writing about Bakers shows transcripts of Bakers performances and other original materials reproduced here for the first time significant new essays by Michele Barrett and Griselda Pollock anew interview with Bobby Baker by Adrian Heathfield. Under the guiding editorial hand of distinguished cultural theorist Michele Barrett, this volume is an essential text for students interested in performance, gender, and visual culture, and a hugely absorbing and accessible account of Bakers work.

No stencils or patterns are ever used. Every birdhouse is treated with several coats of high quality exterior varnish for protection from the elements and to ensure colors will stay bright throughout the seasons. Birds love gourds for nesting and will often return to the same one year after year. When nesting season ends, the gourd's usefulness doesn't end. Birds will continue to use them as shelter from weather and for protection from predators.
