

Loves Bullet: An Urban Novel

A Bullet with No Name... Melrose Manning was always considered a good girl, even with her father being one of the most infamous criminals around. Mel was taken from her home at a young age, forced to grow up in group homes, and then one day someone saved her. Neno was one of her fathers most loyal soldiers, and he was only a few years older than Mel herself. She grew up to be a girl who didnt let life get her down. That is until one fateful day when Mel decides to stop playing it so safe and limiting herself on lifes experiences. As they say, peer pressure can be a motha, and one day of fun nearly costs her life, setting a chain of events that will change the course of her life. Campbell Jai Wright is the complete opposite of her best friend. CJ is what they called a bad bitch. At the tender age of 17 she had grown men wishing they were a button on her designer jeans. Being raised by the citys Kingpin made her well known and a target. Although CJ never seemed to mind living on the edge. Her father makes sure that she has protection around the clock in one of his best associates. CJ has always had a crush on Vic Dice, so evading him all over town was a challenge she was up for. When her world is suddenly turned upside down it causes a ripple effect for those around her. The thing about Loves Bullets is that the shot can come from anywhere, and more than likely its from someone close to you. Together Mel and CJ are each others keeper, sisters from another father and mother. What they dont realize is that they are connected in more ways than one. When they are forced to grow up, the formation of life connects them even further. Will their friendship survive lifes tests? When the storms have passed will they be left standing? Or will they harden in the wake of lifes trials?
