

Colinvaux and Merkins Insurance Contract Law

This major new work is a complete rewriting of the long-established and authoritative text Colinvaux's Law of Insurance, combined with Professor Merkins own highly regarded work Insurance Contract Law. This is a three volume looseleaf work which provides a detailed discussion of the law of insurance, with a focus on modern developments in the law and in the market. It covers the general principles relating to all forms of insurance, and contains detailed analysis of marine and non-marine risks. Key contents:

- * The definition of insurance, formation of the policy, utmost good faith
- * Policy terms, interpretation, conditions and warranties, coverage of specific forms of policy
- * Losses and claims, fraudulent claims, calculation of loss
- * Assignment, intermediaries, conflict of laws, regulation of insurance companies and Lloyds
- * Comprehensive tables of cases, statutes, statutory instruments and index

* Subscribers will also receive Insurance and Reinsurance Law Briefing. The Briefing, issued monthly, contains articles and news covering topical issues

No stencils or patterns are ever used. Every birdhouse is treated with several coats of high quality exterior varnish for protection from the elements and to ensure colors will stay bright throughout the seasons. Birds love gourds for nesting and will often return to the same one year after year. When nesting season ends, the gourd's usefulness doesn't end. Birds will continue to use them as shelter from weather and for protection from predators.
