

Barton Fink & Millers Crossing

The award winning Barton Fink is a dark psychological thriller set in Hollywood in the 1940s. It concerns an aspiring writer who gradually becomes sucked into a grisly world of violence and terror. Millers Crossing reinvents the 1930s gangster film in a complex story of love, friendship, and betrayal. Also in this edition is an introduction by Coen brothers sometime editor Roderick Jaynes, who offers a rare insight into their world.
