

Three Lions Roar: A Novel Of World Cup 2006

Three Lions Roar: A Novel of World Cup 2006 Imagine a Sunday night championship match with the underdog U-12 boys team pulling away with a 2-0 victory. Or how about a Champions League final with the underdog team Liverpool, after being down 3-0, coming back to win it all in a shootout? Whatever the circumstance, whoever the opponent, Three Lions Roar pays tribute to just that: The underdogs! We have all lived it, whether it was watching the World Cup final or just playing a pick up game. We have all felt it, the feeling of rising up to the occasion when all obstacles are in your way, and nobody believes it can be done. Achieving the impossible! For all of you who get goose bumps every time you grab a beer and discuss your old glory days, this book is dedicated to you. Wonderfully constructed, my former football coach, Umut Ozturk, gives us play-by-play of a nations race towards glory and Englands hope of winning a World Cup. Bulut Ozturk, USSF C Licence Football* Coach Its also called Soccer in America.
