

The Temple of the Twelve

Walk with Caroline, called Little Bird, as she studies at The Temple of the Twelve. Each new moon, a Color appears in human form to teach her for the next moon, during which time she must complete the spiritual task given her by the Color before she can progress to the lessons of the next Color. You'll find yourself spellbound at The Temple of the Twelve and wishing you could join Little Bird at the Temple as you immerse yourself in studying to become a priestess. You'll find yourself answering the Colors questions and recreating Little Birds monthly tasks in your own life. You may even want to keep a companion notebook for your own spiritual tasks and sketches. If there were ever a fairytale for Wiccans, this is it, except its no fairytale--it just reads like one. Esmerelda has one of those unique voices that's a cross between a bedtime story and a teacher's gentle instruction in soul work. But don't dismiss this book as a children's story; the spiritual lessons taught by the colors will touch your soul. Just try following in Little Bird's footsteps for a few moons!

No stencils or patterns are ever used. Every birdhouse is treated with several coats of high quality exterior varnish for protection from the elements and to ensure colors will stay bright throughout the seasons. Birds love gourds for nesting and will often return to the same one year after year. When nesting season ends, the gourd's usefulness doesn't end. Birds will continue to use them as shelter from weather and for protection from predators.
