

American Lawyers in a Changing Society, 1776-1876

American Lawyers in a Changing Society, 1776-1876 focuses on the interactions between law, lawyers, and American society taking into account not only the influence that bench and bar wielded over the lay public, but also the equally important restraints that societal norms imposed upon the thinking and behavior of the professional classes.

 stencils or patterns are ever used. ½ Every birdhouse is treated with several coats of high quality exterior varnish for protection from the elements and to ensure colors will stay bright throughout the seasons. Birds love gourds for nesting and will often return to the same one year after year. ½ When nesting season ends, the gourd's usefulness doesn't end. ½ Birds will continue to use them as shelter from weather and for protection from predators.
