

FDLIs FDCA Statutory Supplement, 2013

Why spend countless hours trying to piece together recent amendments to the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FDCA)? We've done the work of integrating the 2013 changes for you in the latest edition of the Statutory Supplement. The Drug Quality and Security Act amends the FDCA in some very important ways, including: exempting some compounded drugs from certain requirements; establishing annual registration and reporting requirements for outsourcing facilities; establishing track and trace requirements; and requiring the Secretary of Health and Human Services to take additional steps to safeguard health. The 2013 edition of the Statutory Supplement uses an easy-to-follow format highlighting additions and deletions to the statute. This edition includes a complimentary CD with the entire volume in electronic format for greater accessibility.
