

A Companion to Contemporary Documentary Film

A Companion to Contemporary Documentary Film presents a collection of original essays that explore major issues surrounding the state of current documentary films and their capacity to inspire and effect change. Presents a comprehensive collection of essays relating to all aspects of contemporary documentary films. Includes nearly 30 original essays by top documentary film scholars and makers, with each thematic grouping of essays sub-edited by major figures in the field. Explores a variety of themes central to contemporary documentary filmmakers and the study of documentary film: the planet, migration, work, sex, virus, religion, war, torture, and surveillance. Considers a wide diversity of documentary films that fall outside typical canons, including international and avant-garde documentaries presented in a variety of media.

No stencils or patterns are ever used. Every birdhouse is treated with several coats of high quality exterior varnish for protection from the elements and to ensure colors will stay bright throughout the seasons. Birds love gourds for nesting and will often return to the same one year after year. When nesting season ends, the gourd's usefulness doesn't end. Birds will continue to use them as shelter from weather and for protection from predators.
