

Internet and Computer Law, Cases, Comments, Questions, 3d (American Casebooks)

Contains the key cases on Internet and computer law, including Altai and Napster as well as newer cases such as Grokster, Rescuecom v. Google and a discussion of the Google Books settlement. The patents chapter provides thorough coverage of the patentability of software, computer-implemented business methods, and Internet techniques. The chapters of the book are fully independent, allowing law teachers to design a course suiting their preferences and tailored to the number of available classroom hours. About half the book is devoted to intellectual property and could be used in a short course on Internet and computer intellectual property.
