

Araki by Araki: The Photographers Personal Selection

There is nothing more interesting than women, and nothing more exciting. -Nobuyoshi Araki

Araki by Araki is a record of the career of Nobuyoshi Araki, self-styled photomaniac and permanent enfant terrible of the Japanese art world. Published to mark the artists sixty-third birthday on May 25, 2003, this volume features 2002 photographs covering his entire career from 1963 to 2002. Sex-trade voyeur, recorder of Tokyo cityscapes, chronicler of married life, or experimental photo artist - no matter what your image of Araki, this collection will reveal new aspects of his talent, as it traces his unique vision over forty prolific years. All the pictures were selected by Araki himself (who also provides an original commentary), making Araki by Araki not only a comprehensive but highly personal overview of the artists work to date. High quality color and duotone black and white printing ensure the highest standard of reproduction throughout.

No stencils or patterns are ever used. Every birdhouse is treated with several coats of high quality exterior varnish for protection from the elements and to ensure colors will stay bright throughout the seasons. Birds love gourds for nesting and will often return to the same one year after year. When nesting season ends, the gourd's usefulness doesn't end. Birds will continue to use them as shelter from weather and for protection from predators.
