

Arbitration 2003: Arbitral Decision-Making: Confronting Current and Recurrent Issues (Arbitration Proceedings of the Annual Meeting of the National Academy of Arbitration)

Arbitration 2003: Arbitral Decision Making The Proceedings of the 56th NAA Annual Meeting contains a series of panel discussions among management and union representatives and NAA members. The panel discussions focus on special problems in arbitral decisionmaking, including disciplinary issues, downsizing, education, professional sports, health care, public-sector arbitration, and the airline industry. In addition, the volume contains the presidential address by Richard Bloch, an address by Ambassador Dennis Ross, reminiscences with George Nicolau, and a chapter about arbitrator acceptability and selection.

No stencils or patterns are ever used. Every birdhouse is treated with several coats of high quality exterior varnish for protection from the elements and to ensure colors will stay bright throughout the seasons. Birds love gourds for nesting and will often return to the same one year after year. When nesting season ends, the gourd's usefulness doesn't end. Birds will continue to use them as shelter from weather and for protection from predators.
