

Legal Ease: Essential Legal Strategies to Protect Canadian Non-union Employees

ITS A FACT Every day millions of non-union employees enter into employment without fully understanding their rights and obligations under Canadas Employment Law. Or they suffer harassment at the workplace and feel helpless. Or they receive a severance package and dont know if it is fair. Or they receive a nasty letter from their former employer threatening to stop them from competing. If this describes you, help has arrived! In this easy-to-understand volume, youll discover practical must-know legal strategies to protect you before, during, at the end of, and after your employment. Leslie J. Smith, B.A. LL.B., Employment Lawyer and author of the popular Legal Ease column for the Burlington Post newspaper (Burlington, Ontario, Canada) since 1997, clearly outlines essential employment laws that directly affect you and shows you how to gather and safeguard necessary evidence to support your case against your employer. Legal Ease-Essential Legal Strategies to Protect Canadian Non-Union Employees is a must-read if you want the peace of mind and security of knowing what your workplace rights and obligations are!
