1812 Excerpt: ...in case such principal felony shall have been committed within the body of any county within this realm, by the course of the common law, either within the county wherein such principal felony shall have been committed, or within the county wherein the said offence in procuring, &c. or otherwise becoming accessory before the fact, shall have been committed; and in case the said principal felony shall have been committed upon the high seas, then the said offence in procuring, &c. such felony, or of so becoming an accessory before the fact, shall and may be inquired of in such court, and in such manner, as by the 28 Hen. 8. c. 15. Eng is appointed for trying felonies done upon the high seas. Provided that no person who shall be once tried and acquitted, or convicted of any such offence, in procuring, &c. any felony, or of otherwise becoming an accessory before the fact to such felony, whether the trial of such person shall have been had according to the course of the common law, or according to the provisions of the 23 Hen. 8. c. 15. shall be liable to be again indicted, prosecuted, or tried, for the same offence, in any court or jurisdiction. The 43 Geo. 3. c. 79.1, contains a similar clause with relation to Ireland. By the 38 Geo. 3. c. 52. It shall be lawful for any prosecutor to prefer his bill of indictment for any felony committed, or charged to be committed, in any county or town corporate, to the jury of the county next adjoining to the county of such city &c. sworn and charged to inquire for the king, for the body of such adjoining county, at any sessions of oyer and
