

The North Carolina Filmography: Over 2000 Film and Television Works Made in the State, 1905 through 2000

In recent years North Carolina has been recognized as a popular filming location for feature films and television series such as Last of the Mohicans and Dawsons Creek. Few people, probably, realize that the first feature film in the state was shot in 1912. This comprehensive reference book provides a complete listing of every film, documentary, short, television program, newsreel, and promotional video in which at least some part was filmed in North Carolina, through the year 2000. The entries contain the following information: alternate titles, the type of film (feature film, television episode, etc), studio, cities, counties, scenes (Biltmore House, for example), comments (short synopses of the movies), director, producer, co-producer, executive producer, cinematographer, writer, music and casting credits, additional crew, and cast.
