

State of European Cinema: A New Dose of Reality (Cassell Film Studies)

A critical review of the current state of European cinema, based on two years of research and interviews with more than 100 film professionals. The book includes: ten case studies of European films such as Trainspotting and Breaking the Waves; an analysis of Europe's public subsidy funds, co-production trends and cinema distribution systems; a case study on the state of British cinema; information on screenplay development and training; and information on Europe's top entertainment corporations, including a case study on Polygram Filmed Entertainment.

stencils or patterns are ever used. Every birdhouse is treated with several coats of high quality exterior varnish for protection from the elements and to ensure colors will stay bright throughout the seasons. Birds love gourds for nesting and will often return to the same one year after year. When nesting season ends, the gourd's usefulness doesn't end. Birds will continue to use them as shelter from weather and for protection from predators.
