

International Litigation Strategies and Practice: International Practitioners Deskbook Series

This book takes a real world approach to international litigation practice, providing practical advice that can be readily implemented. Authored by thirty-one seasoned contributors, this book is an excellent resource. No other text covers in detail the practical skills and strategies required for a practitioner to succeed in this distinctive practice area. Part One discusses the essentials, including communicating with foreign clients, understanding civil law vs. common law systems, and more. Part Two addresses the strategic decisions and practice tools necessary to successfully initiate, defend, and conclude a transnational case. Part Three covers special problems and tribunals.

No stencils or patterns are ever used. Every birdhouse is treated with several coats of high quality exterior varnish for protection from the elements and to ensure colors will stay bright throughout the seasons. Birds love gourds for nesting and will often return to the same one year after year. When nesting season ends, the gourd's usefulness doesn't end. Birds will continue to use them as shelter from weather and for protection from predators.
