

Criminal Evidence in Context (Textbooks)

This text provides a clear comprehensive and practical account of the current UK legal framework which has undergone major changes in the last few years. Detailed coverage is given to the recent major legislative developments including the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999 and the Criminal Justice Act 2003, which have substantially overhauled the strict regime of evidential rules. The text also examines the recent significant Court of Appeal and House of Lords judgements which have significantly altered various elements of the law of evidence. The text then presents an analysis of how the new evidential regime is likely to operate in practice and argues that much of the case law will have to be reconsidered and placed into context in the light of these legislative changes.

No stencils or patterns are ever used. Every birdhouse is treated with several coats of high quality exterior varnish for protection from the elements and to ensure colors will stay bright throughout the seasons. Birds love gourds for nesting and will often return to the same one year after year. When nesting season ends, the gourd's usefulness doesn't end. Birds will continue to use them as shelter from weather and for protection from predators.
