

Insurance Law: A Guide to Fundamental Principles, Legal Doctrines and Commercial Practices (Practitioner Treatise) (Practitioner Treatise Series)

This treatise shows how principles or doctrines such as insurable interests, designation of insurers, and risk transference apply to property, life, liability, or other types of insurance. It also examines frequently disputed issues and suggests lines of analysis to consider when you and your client become involved in these matters. Includes references to judicial decisions and secondary literature. Also includes Westlaw queries to help you find the latest insurance case law.

No stencils or patterns are ever used. Every birdhouse is treated with several coats of high quality exterior varnish for protection from the elements and to ensure colors will stay bright throughout the seasons. Birds love gourds for nesting and will often return to the same one year after year. When nesting season ends, the gourd's usefulness doesn't end. Birds will continue to use them as shelter from weather and for protection from predators.
